wright having learned how to do this work in his father's shop in England. His services were in great demand and he was busily engaged in repairing wagons when anti-Mormon mobs drove the Saints from that city. At Winter Quarters he was selected to go with the pioneer group.

Arriving in the valley he performed whatever labors were asked of him until the time of his return to get his wife. He had been an ardent student of music in England, and Brigham Young, learning of his talents along that line, asked him on his arrival in the valley the second time, to teach a class in dancing. He started his dancing school in Marcy Thompson's log house while a hall was being built. Among his students were President Brigham Young, George Q. Cannon, George A. Smith and other leading brethren of the Church. He also helped to organize the first choir and the first brass band in Salt Lake City.

When land was allotted to the Saints as their inheritance in Zion, he was given a piece of ground in Sugar House Ward. The dancing school, choir and band were reaching a stage of perfection when President Young called him to go to Provo and start a dancing school in that vicinity. He moved his family, built a house and had hardly gotten himself established when he was called to Midway to assist in the same profession. True to every call made by the Church authorities, he again moved his family, and while residing there was instrumental in having a small rock meetinghouse erected with a stage in one end which could be used for social events as well as meetings. But again the call came to go to Glenwood in Sevier county. This time he built a large colonial house as his family now consisted of three wives and a number of small children. He, and his sons, also erected a small blacksmith shop and it is said that they were the first men in that part of the country to shoe the Indians' ponies. For this work they were paid in venison, both fresh and dried, or sometimes a pony.

Mr. Wardle was prospering, when once more a request came from President Taylor, who had been sustained as president of the Church after the death of Brigham Young, to return to Midway, as the settlers were having difficulties with the project begun by him. A few years later he was called to go to Vernal, Uintah County, and again George, although advanced in years, or-

GEORGE WARDLE

Born February 3, 1820, Leek, Staffordshire, England. Married Fannie Rushton in Leek, England. Married his second wife, Lucy, in Salt Lake City. Married Caroline Fisher, Salt Lake City. Died November 25, 1901, Vernal, Utah.

George Wardle was one of the first men to look down into the valley of the Great Salt Lake in July, 1847, after a memorable trek across the plains. He was baptized a member of the Church in England by Elder George A. Smith. In 1842 he sailed for America to join with the body of the Church in Nauvoo, Illinois, bringing with him his wife of two weeks, Fannie Rushton. He immediately engaged in his trade of wheel-
